

Number of Units: 5

Unit Breakdown:

- 1 private room
- 2 shared accommodations

Year Built: 2019

Pricing:

Rent is adjusted to 30% of a resident's annual income

Clientele

Women who have completed an addiction treatment program

This is a communal living environment with a shared kitchen, living room area, and computer room/office space. There are two full bathrooms for the five tenants. Everyone has access to their own private personal spaces such as their own dressers, closets, etc.

Selection Process

The main criteria for becoming a tenant are as described below. Once these conditions have been met these conditions, LI-BER-T house will conduct a vetting process to ensure that an applicant will be a good fit.

Services & Amenities

- Aftercare and reinsertion program
- Dependency counselling
- Mentoring
- Community Resource Support
- Tailored services and programs for individual client needs
- Empowering Individual 6 Step Program

Initiators:

Various West Island community organizations supported, guided, and encouraged the creation of this operation

Criteria

Women are eligible for up to 6 months of housing (or more, if needed) if they abstain from drugs/alcohol. pay the monthly stipend, and are active participants in work/back to school programs.

Financing:

LI-BER-T House has received funding from various foundations

Catchment Territory:

West Island