

TOGETHER FOR A MORE INCLUSIVE SOUTHERN WEST ISLAND

WWW.TQSOI.ORG

It feels good being involved in something that benefits the community.

DID YOU KNOW...

- you have a say in your local community?
- your experience and opinion add to the diversity of the community?
- your participation in your community is valuable?

participate in community
events and activities

volunteer at your local
non-profit organization

become a board member of a local community
organization

become involved in local sports
organizations

meet and interact with people through local interest
groups

HERE ARE SOME WAYS YOU CAN CONTRIBUTE TO YOUR COMMUNITY

become active in a local organization of
your culture,
language or
interest

join a reading club and other activities at your local library

join resident
groups

become a member of parents associations at your kid school daycare

join the municipal local council

WHY IT'S IMPORTANT TO PARTICIPATE?

- to have a direct impact on your community life
- to have updated information about your community
- to interact with people in your community
- to have a say in local decision-making process
- to provide more perspectives to a certain issue
- to create a sense of community ownership and responsibility

More information: Roxana Stoleru, project manager rstoleru@tqsoi.org

514-505-0840 ext.06